

Clermont County Kennel Club

Versatility Award Form

This award will be given to dogs that have achieved titles in three disciplines recognized by the AKC or the breed parent club. AKC-recognized breeds, including breeds in the miscellaneous class and the AKC Foundation Stock Service, are eligible. The dog must be owned by the club member when the titles are achieved.

The AKC titles include a breed championship; obedience; Rally-O; agility; tracking; earthdog; herding; hunting; lure coursing and any other events sanctioned by AKC. (Canine Good Citizen is not a title and will not be recognized as such.)

Breed parent club titles include certifications awarded for breed-related skills such as herding, water rescue, carting, sledding, packing, trailing, weight pulls, etc.

Titles offered by clubs, groups, or associations other than the breed parent club or the AKC are not eligible.
